An individual who, at the invitation of a university, college, school or other similar officially recognised educational institution in a Contracting State, visits that State for a period not exceeding 2 years solely for purpose of teaching or conducting research or both at such educational institution and who is, or was immediately before that visit, a resident of the other Contracting State shall be taxable only in that other State on any remuneration for such teaching or research.
2. The provisions of paragraph 1 shall not apply to income from research if such research is undertaken primarily for the private benefit of a specific person or persons.

Article 22

Students and Apprentices

1. An individual who is a resident of a Contracting State immediately before making a visit to the other Contracting State and is temporarily present in that other State solely as a student at an officially recognised university, college, school or other similar officially recognised educational institution in that other State or as a business or technical apprentice therein shall be exempt from tax in that other State on:
 - a) all remittances from abroad for the purposes of his maintenance, education or training; and
 - b) any remuneration for personal services rendered in that other State with a view to supplementing the resources available to him for the purposes of his maintenance, education or training.

2. An individual who is a resident of a Contracting State immediately before making a visit to the other Contracting State and is temporarily present in that other State for the purposes of study, research or training solely as a recipient of a grant, allowance or award from the Government of either Contracting State or from a scientific, educational, religious or charitable organization or under a technical assistance programme entered into by the Government of either State for a period not exceeding 5 years from the date of his first arrival in the other State in connection with that visit shall be exempt from tax in that other State on:
 - a) the amount of such grant, allowance or award;
 - b) all remittances from abroad for the purposes of his maintenance, education or training; and
 - c) any remuneration in respect of personal services rendered in that other State provided that such services are performed in connection with his study, research or training or are incidental thereto.

3.  - a) all remittances from abroad for the purposes of his maintenance, education or training; and

- b) any remuneration in respect of personal services rendered in that other State provided that such services are performed in connection with his studies or training or are incidental thereto.

Article 23

Other Income

1. Items of income of a resident of a Contracting State, wherever arising, not dealt with in the foregoing Articles of this Convention shall be taxable only in that State.
2. The provisions of paragraph 1 shall not apply to income, other than income from immovable property as defined in paragraph 2 of Article 6, if the recipient of such income, being a resident of a Contracting State, carries on business in the other Contracting State through a permanent establishment situated therein, or performs in that other State independent personal services from a fixed base situated therein, and the right or property in respect of which the income is paid is effectively connected with such permanent establishment or fixed base. In such case the provisions of Article 7 or Article 15, as the case may be, shall apply.
3. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 1, if a resident of a Contracting State derives income from sources within the other Contracting State in the form of lottery prizes and awards, such income may be taxed in that other State.

Article 24

Elimination of Double Taxation

1. In the case of France, double taxation shall be avoided in the following manner:
 - a) Income arising in Pakistan, which may be taxed or shall be taxable only in that State in accordance with the provisions of this Convention, shall be taken into account for the computation of the French tax where the beneficiary of such income is a resident of France and where such income is not exempted from the corporation tax according to French domestic law. In that case, the Pakistan tax shall not be deductible from such income, but the beneficiary shall be entitled to a tax credit against French tax. Such tax credit shall be equal:
 - (i) in the case of income other than income mentioned in subparagraph (ii), to the amount of French tax attributable to such income;
 - (ii) in the case of income referred to in paragraph 3 of Article 8, Articles 10, 11, 12, 13, paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of Article 14, paragraph 3 of Article 16, Article 17, paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 18, and paragraph 2 of Article 19, to the amount of tax paid in Pakistan in accordance with the provisions of those Articles; however, such tax credit shall not exceed the amount of French tax attributable to such income.

- b) In respect of the provisions of this paragraph, it is understood that:
- (i) the term "amount of French tax attributable to such income" means:
 - where the tax on such income is computed by applying a proportional rate, the amount of the net income concerned multiplied by the rate which actually applies to that income;
 - where the tax on such income is computed by applying a progressive scale, the amount of the net income concerned multiplied by the rate resulting from the ratio of the tax actually payable on the total net income taxable in accordance with French law to the amount of that total net income;
 - (ii) the term "amount of tax paid in Pakistan" means the amount of Pakistan tax effectively and definitively borne in respect of the income concerned, in accordance with the provisions of the Convention, by the beneficiary who is a resident of France.
- c) As regards the application of subparagraph a) to income referred to in Articles 11, 12 and 13, where the amount of tax paid in Pakistan in accordance with the provisions of those Articles exceeds the amount of French tax attributable to such income, the resident of France who is the beneficiary of such income may present his case to the French competent authority. Insofar as it appears to it that such a situation results in taxation which is not comparable to taxation on net income, that competent authority may, under the condition it determines, allow the non credited amount of tax paid in Pakistan as a deduction from the French tax levied on other income from foreign sources derived by that resident.
- d) Where, in accordance with its domestic legislation regarding corporation tax, France in determining the taxable profits of its residents takes into account the profits of associated enterprises in the meaning of subparagraphs a) and b) of Article 9 which are enterprises of Pakistan or of permanent establishments situated in Pakistan, the provisions of the Convention shall not prevent the application of that legislation.
2. In the case of Pakistan, subject to the provisions of the laws of Pakistan (which shall not affect the general principle hereof) regarding the allowance as a credit against Pakistan tax, the amount of French tax payable under the laws of France and in accordance with the provisions of the Convention, whether directly or by deduction, by a resident of Pakistan in respect of income from sources within France which has been subjected to tax both in Pakistan and France, shall be allowed as a credit against the Pakistan tax payable in respect of such income but in an amount not exceeding that proportion of Pakistan tax which such income bears to the entire income chargeable to Pakistan tax.

Non-Discrimination

1. Nationals of a Contracting State shall not be subjected in the other Contracting State to any taxation or any requirement connected therewith, which is other or more burdensome than the taxation and connected requirements to which nationals of that other State in the same circumstances are or may be subjected.
2. The term "nationals" means:
 - a) all individuals possessing the nationality of a Contracting State;
 - b) all legal persons, partnerships and associations deriving their status as such from the laws in force in a Contracting State.
3. Stateless persons who are residents of a Contracting State shall not be subjected in either Contracting State to any taxation or any requirement connected therewith which is other or more burdensome than the taxation and connected requirements to which nationals of the State concerned in the same circumstances are or may be subjected.
4. The taxation on a permanent establishment which an enterprise of a Contracting State has in the other Contracting State shall not be less favourably levied in that other State than the taxation levied on enterprises of that other State carrying on the same activities under the same conditions. It is understood that the conditions under which the activities are carried on shall not be considered as different for the reason that such activities are carried on by a permanent establishment of an enterprise of the first-mentioned State and not by an enterprise of the other State.
5. Except where the provisions of Article 9, paragraph 7 of Article 11, paragraph 6 of Article 12, or paragraph 6 of Article 13 apply, interest, royalties, fees for technical services and other disbursements paid by an enterprise of a Contracting State to a resident of the other Contracting State shall, for the purpose of determining the taxable profits of such enterprise, be deductible under the same conditions as if they had been paid to a resident of the first-mentioned State.
6. Enterprises of a Contracting State, the capital of which is wholly or partly owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by one or more residents of the other Contracting State, shall not be subjected in the first-mentioned State to any taxation or any requirement connected therewith which is other or more burdensome than the taxation and connected requirements to which other similar enterprises of the first-mentioned State are or may be subjected.
7. Nothing contained in this Article shall be construed:

- a) as obliging a Contracting State to grant to residents of the other Contracting State any personal allowances, reliefs and reductions for taxation purposes which it grants to its own residents; or
 - b) as affecting the domestic provisions of a Contracting State regarding the imposition of tax on a non-resident person, other than a company.
8. It is understood that the provisions of Article 4 of the agreement between the Government of the French Republic and the Government of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan on the reciprocal promotion and protection of investments, signed on 1 June 1983, shall not apply in tax matters.

Article 26

Mutual Agreement Procedure

1. Where a person considers that the actions of one or both of the Contracting States result or will result for him in taxation not in accordance with the provisions of this Convention, he may, irrespective of the remedies provided by the taxation law of those States, present his case to the competent authority of the Contracting State of which he is a resident or, if his case comes under paragraph 1 of Article 25, to the Contracting State of which he is a national. The case must be presented within two years from the first notification of the action resulting in taxation not in accordance with the provisions of the Convention.
2. The competent authority shall endeavour, if the objection appears to it to be justified and if it is not itself able to arrive at a satisfactory solution, to resolve the case by mutual agreement with the competent authority of the other Contracting State, with a view to the avoidance of taxation which is not in accordance with the Convention. Any agreement reached shall be implemented notwithstanding any time limits in the domestic law of the Contracting States.
3. The competent authorities of the Contracting States shall endeavour to resolve by mutual agreement any difficulties or doubts arising as to the interpretation or application of this Convention. In particular, they may consult together to endeavour to agree to the same allocation of income between associated enterprises mentioned in Article 9. They may also consult together for the elimination of double taxation in cases not provided for in the Convention.
4. The competent authorities of the Contracting States may communicate with each other directly for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the Convention or of reaching an agreement in the sense of the preceding paragraphs. When it seems advisable in order to reach agreement to have an oral exchange of opinions, such exchange may take place through a Commission consisting of representatives of the competent authorities of the Contracting States.
5. The competent authorities of the Contracting States shall, if necessary, by mutual agreement settle the mode of application of the Convention and, especially, the appropriate conditions, methods and techniques of implementation of the exchange of information under Article 27, as well as the requirements to which the residents of a Contracting State shall be subjected in order to obtain, in the other Contracting State, the tax reliefs or exemptions or other benefits provided for by the Convention.

Article 27

Exchange of Information

1. The competent authorities of the Contracting States shall exchange such information as is necessary for carrying out the provisions of this Convention or of the domestic laws of the Contracting States concerning taxes covered by the Convention in so far as the taxation thereunder is not contrary to the Convention, in particular for the prevention of evasion of such taxes. The exchange of information is not restricted by Article 1. Any information received by a Contracting State shall be treated as secret in the same manner as information obtained under the domestic laws of that State and shall be disclosed only to persons or authorities (including courts and administrative bodies) involved in the assessment or collection of, the enforcement or prosecution in respect of, or the determination of appeals in relation to, the taxes which are the subject of the Convention. Such persons or authorities shall use the information only for such purposes. They may disclose the information in public court proceedings or in judicial decisions. The competent authorities shall, through consultation, develop appropriate conditions, methods and techniques concerning the matters in respect of which such exchanges of information shall be made, including, where appropriate, exchanges of information regarding tax avoidance.
2. In no case shall the provisions of paragraph 1 be construed so as to impose on a Contracting State the obligation:
 - a) to carry out administrative measures at variance with the laws and administrative practice of that or of the other Contracting State;
 - b) to supply information which is not obtainable under the laws or in the normal course of the administration of that or of the other Contracting State;
 - c) to supply information which would disclose any trade, business, industrial, commercial or professional secret or trade process, or information, the disclosure of which would be contrary to public policy (ordre public).
3. For the purposes of this Article, taxes on total capital or on elements of capital shall be considered as taxes covered by the Convention.

Article 28

Diplomatic Agents and Consular Officers

1. Nothing in this Convention shall affect the fiscal privileges of members of diplomatic missions and their personal domestics, of members of consular missions, or of members of permanent missions to international organizations under the general rules of international law or under the provisions of special agreements.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 4, an individual who is a member of a diplomatic mission, consular post or permanent mission of a Contracting State which is situated in the other Contracting State or in a third State shall be deemed for the purposes of the Convention to be a resident of the sending State if:
 - a) in accordance with international law he is not liable to tax in the receiving State in respect of income from sources outside that State; and
 - b) he is liable in the sending State to the same obligations in relation to tax on his total world wide income as are residents of that State.
3. The Convention shall not apply to international organizations, to organs or officials thereof and to persons who are members of a diplomatic mission, consular post or permanent mission of a third State, being present in a State and not liable in either Contracting State to the same obligations in relation to tax on their total income as are residents of that State.

Article 29

Entry Into Force

1. The Contracting States shall notify to each other that the constitutional requirements for the entry into force of this Convention have been complied with.
2. The Convention shall enter into force the first day of the second month following the day when the later of the notifications referred to in paragraph 1 has been received and its provisions shall have effect:
 - a) in France:
 - (i) in respect of taxes withheld at the source, on amounts paid or remitted on or after the first day of January in the calendar year next following that in which the Convention enters into force, and
 - (ii) in respect of all other taxes, for taxation relating to any calendar year or accounting period, as the case may be, beginning on or after the first day of January of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the Convention enters into force;
 - b) in Pakistan:
 - (i) in respect of taxes withheld at the source, on amounts paid or remitted on or after the first day of January in the calendar year next following that in which the Convention enters into force, and

- (ii) in respect of all other taxes, for the assessment years beginning on or after the first day of July of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the Convention enters into force.
3. Upon the entry into force of this Convention, the Convention between the French Republic and the Republic of Pakistan for the avoidance of double taxation and the prevention of fiscal evasion with respect to taxes on income signed at Paris on 22nd July, 1966, as well as Article IX of the Agreement of scientific and technical cooperation between the Government of the French Republic and the Government of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan signed in Islamabad on 5th June 1970, shall cease to have effect as from the dates on which the provisions of this Convention commence to have effect.

Article 30

Termination

This Convention shall remain in force indefinitely. However, either Contracting State may terminate the Convention, through diplomatic channels, by giving notice of termination at least six months before the end of any calendar year beginning 5 years after the year in which the Convention enters into force. In such event, the Convention shall cease to have effect:

- a) in France, for taxation relating to any calendar year or accounting period, as the case may be, beginning on or after the first day of January of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the notice of termination is given;
- b) in Pakistan, in respect of income derived in any year of assessment beginning on or after the first day of July of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the notice of termination is given.

In witness whereof the undersigned, duly authorized thereto, have signed this Convention Done at _____, this 15th day of June, 1994, in duplicate in the French and English languages, both texts being equally authentic.

FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE ISLAMIC REPUBLIC OF PAKISTAN:

FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE FRENCH REPUBLIC:

PROTOCOL

At the time of proceeding to the signature of the Convention between the Government of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan and the Government of the French Republic for the avoidance of double taxation and the prevention of fiscal evasion with respect to taxes on income (hereinafter referred to as "the Convention"), the undersigned have agreed on the following provisions which shall form an integral part of the Convention.

1. For the purposes of the Convention, it is understood that the term "political subdivision" wherever it occurs means political subdivision of Pakistan.
2. In respect of paragraph 1 of Article 4, it is understood that the term "resident of a Contracting State" includes:
 - a) that State and its political subdivisions and local authorities;
 - b) where that State is France, any partnership or other group of persons the place of effective management of which is situated in France and all the shareholders, associates or other members of which are personally liable to tax therein in respect of their part of the profits according to French domestic law.
3. In respect of Article 6, where the ownership of shares or other rights in a company or legal person entitles the owner to the enjoyment of immovable property situated in France and held by that company or legal person, income derived by the owner from the direct use, letting or use in any other form of his right of enjoyment may be taxed in France notwithstanding the provisions of Articles 7 and 15.
4. In respect of paragraph 1 of Article 7, profits derived from the sale of goods or merchandise of the same or similar kind as those sold, or from other business activities of the same or similar kind as those effected, through a permanent establishment, may be considered attributable to that permanent establishment if:
 - a) this transaction has been resorted to for the purpose of avoiding taxation in the Contracting State where the permanent establishment is situated; or
 - b) the permanent establishment has signed the contract, irrespective of the fact that the delivery is partly undertaken by its enterprise.
5. In respect of paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 7:
 - a) in the Contracting State in which the permanent establishment is situated, no profits shall be attributed to a building site or construction or installation project except those which are the result of such activities themselves. Profits derived from the supply of goods connected with, or independent of, such activities and effected by the principal permanent establishment or any other permanent establishment of the enterprise or by a third party shall not be attributed to the building site or construction or installation project, provided that the said profits reflect normal open-market commercial terms at arm's length conditions;

- b) income derived from design, planning, engineering or research or from technical services which a resident of a Contracting State performs in that State and which are connected with a permanent establishment in the other Contracting State shall not be attributed to that permanent establishment.
6. In respect of Articles 10 and 25, it is understood that the provisions of Article 115 quinquies of the French tax code shall not apply to permanent establishments of enterprises of Pakistan in France, and that similar provisions, if any, of the Pakistan domestic law shall not apply to permanent establishments of enterprises of France in Pakistan.
7. In respect of paragraph 2 of Article 14, immovable property pertaining to the industrial, commercial or agricultural operation of such company or to the performance of its independent personal services shall not be taken into account for the purposes of the provisions of that paragraph.
8. In respect of subparagraph a (ii) of paragraph 1 of Article 24, notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph b (ii) of the same paragraph, where Pakistan tax on dividends, interest (other than interest mentioned in paragraph 3 of Article 11) or royalties is wholly waived or reduced below the rates provided for in Articles 10, 11 or 12, by special incentive measures in force at the date of signature of the Convention under Pakistan law designed to promote economic development in Pakistan, and where those items of income are received from a company which, being a resident of Pakistan, carries on an industrial activity therein, and does not control directly or indirectly any company which is not a resident of Pakistan, then the term "amount of tax paid in Pakistan" means, in respect of those items of income, the amount corresponding to the rate of tax provided for in Articles 10, 11 or 12 respectively. However, that amount shall not exceed the amount of Pakistan tax which would have been payable according to the general tax law of Pakistan but for such exemption or reduction. The provisions of this paragraph shall be applicable only for a period of ten years after the date of entry into force of the Convention.
9. In respect of paragraphs 1 and 3 of Article 25, it is understood that an individual, legal person, partnership or association which is a resident of a Contracting State is not placed in the same circumstances as an individual, legal person, partnership or association which is not a resident of that State. This shall apply whatever the definition of nationality, even if legal persons, partnerships or associations are, in applying the provisions of paragraph 2 of Article 25, deemed to be nationals of the Contracting State of which they are residents.
10. Contributions borne by an individual who renders dependent personal services in a Contracting State to a pension scheme established in and recognised for tax purposes in the other Contracting State shall be treated, in the first-mentioned State, in determining the individual's taxable income, in the same way and subject to the same conditions and limitations as contributions made to a pension scheme that is recognised for tax purposes in that first-mentioned State, provided that the pension scheme is accepted by the competent authority of that State as generally corresponding to a pension scheme recognised as such for tax purposes by that State. A pension scheme is recognised for tax purposes in a Contracting State if the contributions to the scheme would qualify for tax relief in that State.

11. Nothing in the Convention shall prevent France from applying the provisions of Article 212 of its general tax code or of any substantially similar provisions which may amend or replace the provisions of that Article.

Done at _____, this 15th day of June, 1994, in duplicate in the French and English languages, both text being equally authentic.
