2. The Advocates placed on the Panel shall represent and defend the Federal Board of Revenue, its officers and/or officials, as may be assigned to them by the competent authority, before the relevant court/fora in service matters, in accordance with the applicable rules, instructions, terms and conditions governing engagement of FBR panel counsel.

3. Placement on the Panel shall not, by itself, confer any right upon a panel Advocate to be assigned a particular case or to claim any minimum number of cases. Cases shall be assigned by the competent authority keeping in view the nature of the case, relevant experience, specialization, workload and other administrative requirements of the FBR. Furthermore, professional fee admissible to panel Advocates, on case-to-case basis, shall be regulated in accordance with approved fee structure as per the applicable FBR notifications, rules and orders, as amended from time to time.
4. The FBR reserves the right to review, modify, suspend or withdraw the placement of any Advocate on the Panel as well as withdraw any case assigned to a panel advocate.
5. This notification shall take effect from the date of its issuance.
