	17.2	Any interlineations, erasures, or overwriting shall be valid only if they are signed by the person(s) signing the forms of bid.

D. Submission of Bids

18. Submission of Bids through EPADS before Dead deadline	18.1	The Technical and Financial Bids as the case may be, shall be submitted in the due portion of the EPADS, before bid submission deadline. The bid submission option on EPADS shall be automatically disabled once the deadline is over. Hard Copy (if required) should be submitted in addition to bid submission on EPADS to the Procuring Agency's address by the deadline mentioned in the BDS .
	18.2	The Procuring Agency may, under exceptional circumstances and at its discretion, extend the deadline for the submission of bids by amending the Bidding Documents in accordance with ITB 8. In such a case, all rights and obligations of the Procuring Agency and the Bidders that were previously subject to the original deadline shall thereafter be subject to the revised deadline.

E. Opening and Evaluation of Bids

19. Opening of Bids	19.1	The Procuring Agency will open all bids through EPADS, in the presence of bidders' or their representatives who choose to attend, and other parties with a legitimate interest in the bid proceedings at the place, on the date and at the time, specified in the BDS . The Bidders' representatives present shall sign attendance sheet as proof of their attendance.
	19.2	The bids shall be opened one at a time, and the following read out and recorded: (a) the name of the bidder; (c) the presence of a bid security, if required; and (d) any other details as the procuring agency may consider appropriate.
	19.3	No bid will be rejected at the time of bid opening except for bids whose bid security has not been provided to the procuring agency before submission deadline.
	19.4	The procuring agency shall prepare minutes of the bid opening. The record of the bid opening shall include, as a minimum: the name of the bidder and the bid price, if applicable.
20. Confidentiality	20.1	Information relating to the examination, clarification, evaluation and comparison of bids and recommendation of contract award shall not be disclosed to bidders or any other person(s) not officially concerned with such process, until the time of the announcement of the respective evaluation report.

	20.2	Any effort by a bidder to influence the procuring agency processing of bids or award decision may result in the rejection of his bid.
21. Preliminary Examination of Bids	21.1	Prior to the detailed evaluation of bids, the procuring agency will determine whether each bid: a) meets the eligibility criteria defined in ITB 3; b) has been prepared as per the format and contents defined by the procuring agency in the bidding document; c) is accompanied by the required securities; and d) is substantially responsive to the requirements of the bidding document.
	21.2	The procuring agency will confirm that the documents and information specified under ITB 7,8 and 9 have been provided in the bids. If any of these documents or information is missing, or is not provided in accordance with the Instructions to Bidders, the bids shall be rejected.
	21.3	If a bid is not substantially responsive, it will be rejected by the procuring agency and may not subsequently be evaluated for complete technical responsiveness.
22. Examination of Terms and Conditions, Technical Evaluation	22.1	The procuring agency shall evaluate the technical aspects of the bids submitted in accordance with ITB 21 , to confirm that all requirements specified in Section V – Evaluation Criteria, Technical Specifications and Schedule of Requirements , prescribed in the bidding document have been met without material deviation or reservation.
	22.2	If after the examination of the terms and conditions and the technical evaluation, the procuring agency determines that the bid is not substantially responsive in accordance with ITB 21 , it shall reject the bids.
23. Correction of Errors	23.1	Bids determined to be substantially responsive will be checked for any arithmetic errors. Errors will be corrected as follows: - a) if there is a discrepancy between unit prices and the total price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price shall prevail, and the total price shall be corrected, unless in the opinion of the procuring agency there is an obvious misplacement of the decimal point in the unit price, in which the total price as quoted shall govern and the unit price shall be corrected; b) if there is an error in a total corresponding to the addition or subtraction of sub-totals, the sub-totals shall prevail and the total shall be corrected; and

		c) where there is a discrepancy between the amounts in figures and in words, the amount in words will govern. d) Where there is discrepancy between grand total of price schedule and amount mentioned on the Forms of bid, the amount referred in Price Schedule shall be treated as correct subject to elimination of other errors.
	23.2	The amount stated in the bid will be adjusted by the procuring agency in accordance with the above procedure for the correction of errors and, with the concurrence of the bidder that shall be considered as binding upon the bidder. If the Bidder does not accept the corrected amount, his bid will then be rejected, and the Bid Security may be forfeited or the Bid Securing Declaration may be executed in accordance with ITB 14 .
24. Conversion to Single Currency	24.1	To facilitate evaluation and comparison, the procuring agency will convert all bid prices expressed in the amount in various currencies in which the bid prices are payable. For the purposes of comparison of bids quoted in different currencies, the price shall be converted into a single currency specified in the bidding document. The rate of exchange shall be the selling rate prevailing on the date of opening of financial bids specified in the bidding document, in accordance with weighted average customer exchange rates list issued by the State Bank of Pakistan on that day.
25. Evaluation of Bids	25.1	The procuring agency shall evaluate and compare only those bids determined to be substantially responsive, pursuant to ITB 21 .
	25.2	In evaluating the Technical Bids of each Bidder, the Procuring Agency shall apply the evaluation criteria and methodologies specified in the Bid Data Sheet (BDS) and in accordance with the Statement of Requirements and Technical Specifications. No other evaluation criteria or methodologies shall be permitted.
26. Determination of Most Advantageous Bids	26.1	Selection technique will be adopted for determining the most advantageous bid in accordance with the criteria referred in the BDS or prescribed in the separate section titled as Evaluation Criteria.
27. Abnormally Low Financial Bids	27.1	Procuring agency may reject a bid if it has determined that the price, in combination with other constituent elements of the bid, is abnormally low in relation to the subject matter of the procurement, such that it raises material concerns on the part of the procuring agency, as to the ability of the bidder to perform the procurement contract satisfactorily for the offered price. A procuring agency shall not reject a bid as abnormally low under sub-clause (1) above unless the procuring agency –

		(a) requested in writing through EPADS from the bidder a written clarification of his bid, including a detailed price analysis of his bid price in relation to the subject matter of the procurement contract, scope, methodology, schedule, allocation of risks and responsibilities and any other requirements of the bidding document; and (b) having taken account, the information provided by the bidder in response to a request under paragraph (a) and the information included in the bid, the procuring agency determines that the bidder has failed to demonstrate its ability to perform the procurement contract satisfactorily for the offered price. The procuring agency shall promptly communicate to the bidder concerned its decision to reject the bid, including the reasons for the decision.

F. Award of Contract

28. Criteria of Award	28.1	The procuring agency will award the Contract to the bidder whose bid has been determined to be substantially responsive to the bidding document and who has been declared as Most Advantageous Bidder.
29. Procuring Agency's Right to reject All Bids	29.1	The procuring agency reserves the right to reject all the Bids and to annul the procurement process at any time prior to acceptance of the bid(s), without thereby incurring any liability to the affected bidder(s).
	29.2	Notice of the rejection of all bids shall be given promptly to all bidders that have submitted the bids. The procuring agency shall upon request communicate to any bidder the grounds for the rejection of his bid, but is not required to justify those grounds.
30. Procuring Agency's Right to Vary Quantities at the Time of Award	30.1	The procuring agency reserves the right, at the time of contract award, to increase or decrease the quantity of related services originally specified in the Schedule of Requirements, provided that such variation does not exceed the percentage indicated in the Bid Data Sheet (BDS) . This adjustment shall be made without any change in the unit price or other terms and conditions of the Bids and Bidding Documents.
31. Notification of Award	31.1	Prior to the award of contract, the procuring agency shall issue a Final Evaluation Report giving justification for acceptance or rejection of the bids.

C. Obligations of the Contractor

15. General	1.4 Standard of Performance i. The Contractor shall perform the Services and carry out the Services with all due diligence, efficiency and economy, in accordance with generally accepted professional standards and practices, and shall observe sound management practices, and employ appropriate technology and safe and effective equipment, machinery, materials and methods. The Contractor shall always act, in respect of any matter relating to this Contract or to the Services, as a faithful adviser to the Procuring Agency, and shall at all times support and safeguard the Procuring Agency's legitimate interests in any dealings with the third parties; ii. The Contractor shall employ and provide such qualified and experienced Experts and Sub-Contractors as are required to carry out the Services. 1.4 Law Applicable to Services The Contractor shall perform the Services in accordance with the Contract and in accordance with the Law of Pakistan and shall take all practicable steps to ensure that any of its Experts and Sub-Bidders, comply with the Applicable Law.
16. Conflict of Interests	1.4 Contractor Not to Benefit from Commissions and Discounts The remuneration of the Contractor shall constitute the Contractor's sole remuneration in connection with this Contract or the Services, and the Contractor shall not accept for their own benefit any trade commission, discount, or similar payment in connection with activities pursuant to this Contract or to the Services or in the discharge of their obligations under the Contract, and the Contractor shall use their best efforts to ensure that the Personnel, any Subcontractors, and agents of either of them similarly shall not receive any such additional remuneration. 1.4 Contractor and Affiliates Not to be Otherwise Interested in Project The Contractor agree that, during the term of this Contract and after its termination, the Contractor and its affiliates, as well as any Subcontractor and any of its affiliates, shall be disqualified from providing Services (other than the Services and any continuation thereof) for any project resulting from or closely related to the Services. 1.4 Prohibition of Conflicting Activities Neither the Bidder nor its Subcontractors nor the Personnel shall engage, either directly or indirectly, in any of the following activities: (a) during the term of this Contract, any business or professional activities in the Government's country which would conflict with the activities assigned to them under this Contract; (b) during the term of this Contract, neither the Contractor nor their Subcontractors shall hire public employees in active duty or on any type of leave, to perform any activity under this Contract; I after the termination of this Contract, such other activities as may be specified in the SCC.

17. Insurance to be Taken Out by the Contractor	17.1 The Contractor(a) shall take out and maintain, and shall cause any Subcontractors to take out and maintain, at its (or the Sub-contractors', as the case may be) own cost but on terms and conditions approved by the Procuring Agency, insurance against the risks, and for the coverage, as shall be specified in the SCC; and (b) at the Procuring Agency's request, shall provide evidence to the Procuring Agency showing that such insurance has been taken out and maintained and that the current premiums have been paid.
18. Contractor's Actions Requiring Procuring Agency's Prior Approval	18.1 The Contractor shall obtain the Procuring Agency's prior approval in writing before taking any of the following actions: (a) appointing such members of the Personnel not provided by the Contractor; (b) changing the Program of activities; and I any other action that may be specified in the SCC.
19. Reporting Obligations	19.1 The Contractor shall submit to the Procuring Agency the reports and documents in the numbers, and within the periods as prescribed by the Procuring Agency.
20. Liquidated Damages	1.4 Payments of Liquidated Damages The Contractor shall pay liquidated damages to the Procuring Agency at the rate per day stated in the SCC for each day that the Completion Date is later than the Intended Completion Date. The total amount of liquidated damages shall not exceed the amount defined in the SCC. The Procuring Agency may deduct liquidated damages from payments due to the Contractor. Payment of liquidated damages shall not affect the Contractor's liabilities. 1.4 Correction for Over-payment If the Intended Completion Date is extended after liquidated damages have been paid, the Procuring Agency shall correct any overpayment of liquidated damages by the Contractor by adjusting the next payment certificate. The Contractor shall be paid interest on the overpayment, calculated from the date of payment to the date of repayment, at the rates specified in SCC. 1.4 Lack of performance penalty If the Contractor has not corrected a Defect within the time specified in the Procuring Agency's notice, a penalty for Lack of performance will be paid by the Contractor. The amount to be paid will be calculated as a percentage of the cost of having the Defect corrected, assessed as specified in the Contractor

21. Performance Guarantee	21.1 Within the time stipulated in the acceptance letter from the Procuring Agency, the successful Bidder shall furnish the Performance Guarantee in shape and amount specified in SCC. 21.2 The proceeds of the Performance Guarantee shall be payable to the Procuring agency as compensation for any loss resulting from the Supplier's failure to complete its obligations under the Contract. 21.2 The Performance Guarantee shall be denominated in the currency of the Contract, or in a freely convertible currency acceptable to the Procuring agency and shall be in the acceptable form as specified in SCC. 21.3 The Performance Guarantee will be discharged by the Procuring agency and returned to the Supplier not later than thirty (30) days following the date of completion of the Supplier's performance obligations under the Contract, including any warranty obligations, unless otherwise specified in SCC.
22. Sustainable Procurement	22.1 The Contractor shall conform to the sustainable procurement contractual provisions, if and as specified in the SCC.

D. Contractor's Personnel

23. Description of Personnel	23.1 The titles, agreed job descriptions, minimum qualifications, and estimated periods of engagement in the carrying out of the
-------------------------------------	--

	Services of the Contractor's Key Personnel. The Key Personnel listed by title as well as by name are hereby approved by the Procuring Agency.
24. Removal and/or Replacement of Personnel	24.1 Except as the Procuring Agency may otherwise agree, no changes shall be made in the Key Personnel. If, for any reason beyond the reasonable control of the Contractor, it becomes necessary to replace any of the Key Personnel, the Contractor shall provide as a replacement a person of equivalent or better qualifications. 24.2 If the Procuring Agency finds that any of the Personnel have (i) committed serious misconduct or have been charged with having committed a criminal action, or (ii) have reasonable cause to be dissatisfied with the performance of any of the Personnel, then the Contractor shall, at the Procuring Agency's written request specifying the grounds thereof, provide as a replacement a person with qualifications and experience acceptable to the Procuring Agency. 24.3 The Contractor shall have no claim for additional costs arising out of or incidental to any removal and/or replacement of Personnel.

E. Obligations of the Procuring Agency

25. Change in the Applicable Law	25.1 If, after the date of this Contract, there is any change in the Applicable Law with respect to taxes and duties which increases or decreases the cost of the Services rendered by the Contractor, then the remuneration and reimbursable expenses otherwise payable to the Contractor under this Contract shall be increased or decreased accordingly by agreement between the Parties, and corresponding adjustments shall be made to the amounts referred in the SCC.
26. Services and Facilities	26.1 The Procuring Agency shall make available to the Contractor and the Experts, for the purposes of the Services and free of any charge, the services, facilities and property described in the Terms of Reference, at the times and in the manner specified in the Terms of Reference. 26.2 In case that such services, facilities and property shall not be made available to the Contractor, the Parties shall agree on (i) any time extension that it may be appropriate to grant to the Contractor for the performance of the Services, (ii) the manner in which the Contractor shall procure any such services, facilities and property from other sources, and (iii) the additional payments, if any, to be made to the Contractor as a result thereof.

F. Payments to the Contractor

27. Contract Price	27.1 The price payable shall be in Pakistani Rupees unless otherwise specified in the SCC.
28. Terms and Conditions of Payment	28.1 Payments will be made to the Contractor according to the payment schedule stated in the SCC and as per actual invoice submitted by the Contractor. 28.2 Unless otherwise stated in the SCC, the advance payment shall be made against the provision by the Contractor of a bank guarantee for the same amount and shall be valid for the period stated in the SCC. Any other payment shall be made after the conditions listed in the SCC for such payment have been met, and the Contractor have submitted an invoice to the Procuring Agency specifying the amount due.
29. Quality Control Identifying Defects	29.1 The principle and modalities of Inspection of the Services by the Procuring Agency shall be as indicated in the SCC. The Procuring Agency shall check the Contractor's performance and notify him of any Defects that are found. Such checking shall not affect the Contractor's responsibilities. The Procuring Agency may instruct the Contractor to search for a Defect and to uncover and test any service that the Procuring Agency considers may have a Defect. Defect Liability Period is as defined in the SCC.
30. Correction of Defects, and Lack of Performance Penalty	30.1 The Procuring Agency shall give notice to the contractor of any Defects before the end of the Contract. The Defects liability period shall be extended for as long as Defects remain to be corrected. 30.2 Every time notice a Defect is given; the contractor shall correct the notified Defect within the length of time specified by the Procuring Agency's notice. 30.3 If the contractor has not corrected a Defect within the time specified in the Procuring Agency's notice, the Procuring Agency will assess the cost of having the Defect corrected, the contractor will pay this amount, and a Penalty for Lack of Performance.
31. Settlement of Disputes Amicable Settlement	31.1 The Parties shall use their best efforts to settle amicably all disputes arising out of or in connection with this Contract or its interpretation.
32. Dispute Settlement	Arbitration 32.1 If any dispute of any kind whatsoever shall arise between the procuring agency and the contractor in connection with or arising out of the Contract, including without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, any question regarding its existence, validity or termination, or the execution of the contract, the parties shall seek to resolve any such dispute or difference by mutual consultation. If the parties fail to resolve such a dispute or difference even after negotiations or mediation, then the dispute shall be referred within fourteen (14) days in writing by either party to the Arbitrator, with a copy to the other party. 32.2 Any dispute in respect of which a notice of intention to commence arbitration has been given, in accordance with GCC sub-clause 32.1, shall be finally settled by arbitration. Arbitration may be commenced prior to or after completion of the Contract. Arbitration proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with Arbitration Act 1940. 32.3 Notwithstanding any reference to arbitration herein, the parties shall continue to perform their respective obligations under the Contract unless otherwise agreed. The Procuring Agency shall continue to pay the Contractor any undisputed amounts due under the Contract during the resolution of any dispute.

33. Balance Work in case of Contract Termination	33.1 Balance Work in case of termination of Contract In case of termination of contract of a certain package of current procurement process or previously advertised procurement processes for the same scope of work, the Procuring Agency reserves the right to offer the balance work of the terminated contract of current or previous procurements to other awarded contractors at their quoted rates, subject to consent of both parties. In order to ensure timely completion of the remaining works, the Procuring Agency reserves the right to distribute / offer the balance work among the existing Contractors of other packages already engaged on the Project. The complete balance work may be assigned to any one or multiple bidders as decided by the Procuring Agency based on performance of those contractors or any other parameter as decided by the Procuring Agency during the execution of contract. The allocation of balance work shall not require the execution of any new contract(s). Instead, the said allocation shall be implemented through appropriate amendments to the respective ongoing contracts of existing Contractors, in line with the applicable provisions of the Contract and Procurement Regulations. All terms and conditions of the existing contracts shall remain applicable to the balance work, except to the extent duly amended through contract amendments made therein after the signing of contract.

33.2 Employee Continuity

In order to ensure continuity of operations and minimize disruption, the Procuring Agency may require that suitably qualified employees previously engaged by the Contractor whose contract has been terminated due to any reason, such employees be offered employment by the existing / ongoing Contractor(s), to the extent that their services are required for execution of the balance work. The respective Contractors shall, in good faith, absorb such employees on their payrolls under terms and conditions not less favorable than their existing entitlements, subject to satisfactory performance and compliance with applicable labor laws.

33.3 Indemnity for Procuring Agency

The Contractor whose contract has been terminated due to any reason, by acceptance of the LOI / Contract, agrees that in the event of termination, it shall not object to such transfer of balance work or employees, and further undertakes not to initiate or support any legal, administrative, or arbitral proceedings or litigations against the Procuring Agency in relation to such employee transfer, redistribution of balance work, or related matters. The Contractor whose contract has been terminated shall indemnify and hold harmless the Procuring Agency against any claims, costs, or proceedings initiated by its employees or third parties in this regard. The contractor further accepts the conditions of contract award related to Advertised Packages.

33.4 Probation Period

The initial probation period to assess such performances of the contractor as provided in this bidding document and subsequent contract signed between the parties, shall be 3 months from the date of signing of contract. Upon completion of 3 months from the signing of contract, the Procuring Agency shall evaluate the performance of the contractor as per contract and decide whether to continue the contract or terminate the contract subject to the achievement of deliverables and satisfactory performance of contractor. The Procuring Agency however, in exceptional circumstances, may evaluate contractor's performance before completion of the 3-month probation period and if the contractor has failed to perform any such part of the contract which is vital for the execution of required services, the processes for the same scope of work, the Procuring Agency reserves the right to offer the balance work of the terminated contract of current or previous procurements to other awarded contractors at their quoted rates, subject to consent of both parties. In order to ensure timely completion of the remaining works, the Procuring Agency reserves the right to distribute / offer the balance work among the existing Contractors of other packages already engaged on the Project. The complete balance work may be assigned to any one or multiple bidders as decided by the Procuring Agency based on performance of those contractors or any other parameter as decided by the Procuring Agency during the execution of contract. The allocation of balance work shall not require the execution of any new contract(s). Instead, the said allocation shall be implemented through appropriate amendments to the respective ongoing contracts of existing Contractors, in line with the applicable provisions of the Contract and Procurement Regulations. All terms and conditions of the existing contracts shall remain applicable to the balance work, except to the extent duly amended through contract amendments made therein after the signing of contract. 33.2 Employee Continuity In order to ensure continuity of operations and minimize disruption, the Procuring Agency may require that suitably qualified employees previously engaged by the Contractor whose contract has been terminated due to any reason, such employees be offered employment by the existing / ongoing Contractor(s), to the extent that their services are required for execution of the balance work. The respective Contractors shall, in good faith, absorb such employees on their payrolls under terms and conditions not less favorable than their existing entitlements, subject to satisfactory performance and compliance with applicable labor laws. 33.3 Indemnity for Procuring Agency The Contractor whose contract has been terminated due to any reason, by acceptance of the LOI / Contract, agrees that in the event of termination, it shall not object to such transfer of balance work or employees, and further undertakes not to initiate or

	Procuring Agency may proceed for termination of contract before completion of probation period as per provisions of this contract.
